USPA NEWS - On June 7, 2023, the IHRC Peace Ambassador H.E. Marcin Kwiatkowski, acting on behalf of the IHRC Secretary General, prof. h.c. Rafa? Marcin Wasik and the International Human Right Commission, awarded the IHRC Transnational Intergovernmental Medal
"Civis Mundi Sum" for outstanding merits in the defense of human rights Senior NCOs Aspirant Piotr Jagaczewski of the Polish Police.

Inspector of the Polish Police Marcin Kubas, a sympathizer of the IHRC, assisted in the award. Aspirant Piotr Jagaczewski has been actively supporting activities for the defense of human rights for 5 years. As a police Senior NCOs, he always stands up for human rights and is an example of a police officer who is very sensitive in human rights matters. Awarded Piotr Jagaczewski trains future observers and participants of the IHRC mission in personal security and defense techniques. Aspirant Piotr Jagaczewski has proven many times that he is a citizen of the world and that the fate of people in need of IHRC support is very important to him.
